ALLIES FORGING SERVIA TO YIELD

Serbs Accept Compromise Which Is Offered by Austria
Over Albania.

TURKEY REJECTS TERMS

Fighting on Land and Sea Still Continues—Cholera Camps
Are Frightful.

*****
(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
LONDON, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Danger of a general war is considered past in diplomatic circles here, Serbia's acceptance of a compromise over the Adriatic port dispute having removed Austria's casus belli. The Serbians yielded under pressure from their Allies.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
CONSTANTINOPLE, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Turkey has rejected the terms offered by the Balkan Allies, deeming them excessive. Fighting has been ordered resumed.

Fear Massacre at Jaffa.
(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
LONDON, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Reports that a massacre of Christians has started at Jaffa, thirty miles northwest of Jerusalem, have not as yet been confirmed, but there is great anxiety here among representatives of the Powers.

The Russian cruiser Oleg is steaming full speed for Jaffa to bring succor to the Christians there, if they have been attacked.

Kimil Pasha reports that the epidemic of cholera is subsiding among the Turkish troops. This, eye witnesses deny. They say the dead and dying are lying everywhere at Hademkeul, and that but little effort is being made to remove the sick to the cholera camp at San Stefano.

Medical treatment these witnesses say is most perfunctory. Cars crowded with sick arrive at San Stefano and the victims are unloaded head over heels down an embankment, along the tracks, where most of them are left without further attention. There are few tents in the camp.

The death rate among the stricken is said to be more than fifty per cent.

Torpedo Boats Revulsed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—In an attack on the Turkish cruiser Hamidie, in the Black Sea this morning, two Bulgarian torpedo boats are reported to have been sunk and two other torpedo boats badly shattered. The Hamidie is said to have escaped practically without damage.

Forced to Retire.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, November 21.—(By Associated Press Cable)—In a desperate attack upon the first line of defense this morning, the Bulgarian troops were temporarily successful, but at an awful cost. Eight thousand are reported to have been killed and wounded by the Turkish fire.

After holding the position they had captured for a time, the Bulgarians were forced to withdraw, as the cannon of the Ottomans commanded the lines, and inflicted tremendous damage. The Bulgarians retired to a line four miles to the rear.

Slaughter Is Fearful.

BELGRADE, Serbia, November 21.—(By Associated Press Cable)—Twenty thousand Turks and nearly an equal number of Serbians were killed in the capture of Monastir, according to reports coming to military headquarters here. The desperate series of assaults on the Turkish stronghold proved one of the bloodiest of the war.

Cholera Camps Hopeless.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, November 21.—(By Associated Press Cable)—It is reported here that the little Russian Crown Prince has tuberculosis of the hip-joint, and that this was the reason for the sudden call upon eminent German surgeons to attend him at St. Petersburg.

A visit to the cholera camps reveals conditions that are appalling. The sick and dying are uncared for in many cases, hundreds of them being forced to lie in heaps of filth because they are unable to move themselves, and the sanitation work is hopeless.

There is no distribution of water, bread or medicine. The deaths are increasing daily.

The Kahuku wireless station was in touch with the Tanga Mara and Oahu Mary last night.

COULDN'T PLAY BALL, COMMITTS SUICIDE

Member of Oakland Team, of the Pacific Coast League,
Was Despondent.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
PORTLAND, Oregon, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—While his wife was down town buying tickets to Oklahoma, where he was to go in search of health, James Frick, utility infielder of the Oakland baseball team of the Pacific Coast League, yesterday drank carbolic acid, dying soon afterwards. Frick came to Portland with his wife at the end of the last baseball season, ill and despondent.

A month before the close of the season he disappeared from Oakland, and Secretary Cook of the Oakland team, the members of the team and Oakland and Los Angeles police departments made search for him, suspecting foul play. He was afterwards found, and it was said that his despondency had caused his disaffection. Frick continued despondent after he arrived in Portland and this led to the plan to go to Oklahoma.

EIGHT-STORY WALL FALLS INTO STREET, BUT NO ONE HURT

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
PORTLAND, Oregon, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Eight floors of the wall on the sixth street side of the Marquam building, a skyscraper in the heart of the business section, collapsed today, but, miraculously, no one was hurt.

The streets are roped off in the vicinity of the building and a complete collapse is not improbable. The building contains the Orpheum Theater and many offices.

TUBERCULOSIS OF HIP.

BERLIN, Germany, November 21.—(By Associated Press Cable)—It is reported here that the little Russian Crown Prince has tuberculosis of the hip-joint, and that this was the reason for the sudden call upon eminent German surgeons to attend him at St. Petersburg.

WITNESS TELLS OF DYNAMITINGS

McManigal Says He Engineered
Explosions by Direction of His Union.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
INDIANAPOLIS, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Ortie McManigal resumed the witness stand today and continued his description of dynamitings, which, he declared, he engineered, under direction of the officials of the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of America. McManigal said he usually rode in smokers when transporting nitroglycerine for the various explosions he caused.

McManigal referred to November, 1910, when he declared, Jim McNamara tried to shoot him in the Wisconsin woods. He said he and Jim went into a dingy and Jim described the Los Angeles dynamiting. The informer declared Jim said:

"This would be a fine place to stay all winter. The authorities would not find us."

McManigal testified that Jim told him that when he left San Francisco, following The Times explosion, he dropped in San Francisco Bay a suitcase holding four infernal machines.

The witness also declared that Olaf Twissner, the San Francisco leader, was to meet John McNamara at the iron workers' convention in St. Louis and there tell him the details of The Times explosion.

Jim McNamara told McManigal, the latter said, that the nitroglycerine used on The Times job resembled plum jelly. He said Jim declared he would have put a "Mess of soup" on The Times auxiliary plant if he had known where it was at the time of the explosion.

for Mongolia to Oppose Independence.

"It is reported that Wu Han Wen, governor of Kwang Tung Province, is prepared to dispatch an army of 20,000 soldiers to the Mongolian frontier for the protection of Chinese interests. The government advises the Chinese people abroad to raise funds for this cause."

A Peking dispatch says: "The Peking government has dispatched 50,000 troops to Mongolia to protect the Mongolian people who have opposed the convention between Russia and Mongolia, in which Russia recognized Mongolia's independence. The Chinese government has opened negotiations through the Russian legation and is strongly opposed to Russian interference in Mongolia."

WILL COMPLAIN AT WASHINGTON

Passengers Held Here in Quarantine
Are Indignant at Treatment.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
SAN FRANCISCO, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Indignant over the treatment accorded them by the quarantine officials of Honolulu, following the discovery of a case of bubonic plague on board the British steamer Makura, several passengers who arrived on the Matsun liner Honolulu have forwarded a complaint to Washington.

Edgar F. Brewster, general manager for R. G. Dun & Company in Australia; Daniel Rowan, a wealthy resident of Los Angeles, and A. S. Boyd, representing American manufacturers in the Antipodes, allege that twenty-six passengers were subjected to considerable hardship when they were thrown into quarters devoid of sanitation and reeking with the filth left by thousands of Asiatics who had formerly occupied the quarters.

"The method of handling the quarantine service at Honolulu is disgraceful," said Boyd. "When the steamer arrived at Honolulu from Australia, Doctor Trotter boarded the ship, learned that one of the firemen had the plague and ordered us to go ashore for an indefinite stay."

"We were compelled to tramp over two miles to the quarters. Two aged women were prostrated so that medical attention was needed at once. We found a lot of dirty shacks which had been used by Asiatics six months before. The doors had been nailed up and we had to stay there some time before they were opened. When they were opened the stench was frightful, yet for four days the twenty-six, including even young infants, had to remain in the place."

"It seems that a contract had been made to have the food supplied by a Japanese contractor. It was unfit for human consumption and but few of the passengers touched any of it. We are determined to see that a thorough investigation is made."

ROOSEVELT LOSES TWO PRECINCTS AND CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, November 22.—(By Associated Press Cable)—By a decision of the appellate court here yesterday only the vote for A. J. Wallace, Progressive, and for T. F. Griffin, Democrat, both candidates for Presidential electors, is valid. This throws out the vote for Roosevelt in two precincts of this city, and gives the State of California to Wilson by a small plurality. It is probable that the decision will be appealed.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
YOKOSUKA, Japan, November 21.—(Special to The Advertiser)—With the breaking of all records for shipbuilding in Japan, the cruiser-battleship Hiei was launched here today with great ceremony in the presence of an enormous crowd. ## WILSON IS FRIEND OF HAWAII

Secretary Fisher's Report Probable
Basis of Future Action
Toward Islands.

By Ernest G. Walker.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, November 8.—The Democratic administration, now hardly four months away, raises numerous questions of immediate interest to Hawaii. The attitude of leading officials, including the new President, toward the Islands, is one of them. The prospects of various matters of legislation, including sugar revision, is another of several that might be mentioned.

There is good reason for believing that President-elect Wilson is not unfriendly to the Territory. How much information he has about territorial affairs, information of the character that might make him more or less sympathetic with legitimate enterprises there, is open to conjecture. His secretary of the interior will naturally have much influence with him in the disposition of Hawaiian business that comes to Washington. There is no certainty whatever yet and probably will be none for many weeks, as to who this new secretary will be.

Secretary Fisher Will Help.

The time is too brief and there will be too many other matters crowding for Secretary of the Interior Fisher to inaugurate or encourage any decisive policies for the Islands as the result of his recent visit there. He plans to write a detailed report, which probably will become a public record and will be available for consultation by his successor in office. In some measure the secretary's visit to Hawaii will be wholesome upon the future administration of territorial affairs at Washington.

Frear Appointment.

President Taft has already announced his intention of appointing Governor Frear. He will not do so before congress assembles next month. Since the election there has been some conjecture whether the President would then prefer to make the nomination or whether he would withhold it, because of the few remaining days of his administration. Then he would leave the Democratic President, Mr. Wilson, free to select a Governor of Hawaii from his own party. Governor Frear, of course, has been holding over now for more than a year and could continue to hold office till the Wilson administration is in power and the new President has opportunity to select a Governor.

This question will arise with reference to numerous appointments of some importance that the President might make during the session of congress this winter. The Democrats will want as many places as they can have, although an impression prevails that, as President, Mr. Wilson is unlikely to yield over much to the spoilsman. Governor Frear's term would be for four years, if nominated by President Taft and confirmed by the senate before March 4. But the tenure of these territorial Governors is understood to be more or less at the will of the President and undoubtedly if President Wilson should request any of the territorial Governors to resign his request would be complied with. On the other hand, if Governor Frear should serve out another four years' term, it would carry him well up to the close of the Wilson administration. The Democrats might not look upon that prospect with composure.

Protest May Come.

It has been suggested that if President Taft should attempt to fill any considerable number of important federal offices for four year terms during the winter, the senate Democrats would enter protest. By preventing confirmation, which could be done, these senate Democrats could defer final action till the new administration is in power. This probably will not be done in Governor Frear's case solely, if at all. Should it happen, it would be the result of a decision to prevent the disposition of all patronage with the view to reserving it for President Wilson.

TO BLOCK GOVERNOR'S CONFIRMATION IS PLAN

With the prospect of President Taft reappointing Governor Frear for another four-year term when congress convenes in December, and the possibility of his remaining in office for some time after President-elect Wilson takes up his residence in the White House, Democrats of the Hawaiian Islands will not wait for March 4 to make an effort to have a vacancy for a Democratic Governor, but will endeavor to block Governor Frear's confirmation by the senate with its Republican majority. It was at first believed that one of the reasons why Attorney W. A. Roney, who was as big a foe to Frear as any man in the Islands, (Continued on Page Four.)
